Each series starts with the command:

"Get ready for the position (kneeling, prone, standing)", "Load".

After approximately one minute, the Range Officer will command: "Attention, three-two-one-fire". On "fire" all the targets are hoisted simultaneously to the firing position. The firing will cease with a 3 seconds long whistle tone. During the whistling (1 minute 27 seconds to 1 minute 30 seconds in prone position or 1 minute 57 seconds to 2 minutes in the other two positions), the competitors may fire. Each shot fired after the end of the 3 seconds whistling will be recorded as zero. At the same time the targets will be lowered.

Each series is fired with the odd number targets first, followed by the even number targets. Refire will be shot at the end of each position or the shooter may be resquaded at the decision of the Technical Jury. After each series shot in kneeling, prone and standing position, the targets are shown during 1 (one) minute to the competitor to allow him to observe the hits. The competitor is allowed to use a telescope during the entire competition.

Before the command "fire" is given, the weapons are held in the ready position, i.e. the weapon is not shouldered.

Between shooting positions is commanded: "ten minutes changeover times starts!"

5.2.3.2 In the Marking Pit

a. Sighting shots

As soon as the marker observes that his target is hit, he lowers the target, covers the hole with a transparent paster and overlays a contrasting paster to mark the position of the last shot. Then he hoists the target and indicates the position of the hit and shows the value. When all sighting shots have been fired after 15 minutes, the marker removes the sighting target from the frame and puts on the first competition target.

b. Competition series

When the pit receives the signal "fire" from the Range Officer, all targets are raised simultaneously. After receiving the signal "Stop", all targets are lowered immediately. After all targets have been visually controlled and the results have been written on the proper form, the targets are raised for 1 minute so that the competitor can see his target. The target is then removed and taken to the Classification section. The targets for the next series are placed on the frame and the Range Officer is informed that the pit is ready for the next series.

5.2.3.3 Safety (Penalties, ready-position, more than 10 shots, etc.)

a. Safety is of paramount importance. After each series, the command "Unload" will be given (cartridges and/or magazines are removed and the action is open and bolt back). Until the next command "Load" is given, shooters are not allowed to load the rifle, otherwise they will be disqualified.

b. The competitor is allowed to have until 4 magazines loaded to the kneeling-prone and standing positions in the 300 m Rifle Military Rapid Fire.

The competitor is only allowed to load the magazines when they are on command. The magazines can be loaded when the command "(Get ready for the position kneeling, prone, standing.) is given.

If a competitor disturbs when the opposite competitors are commanded, they get a yellow card. If a competitor disturbs again they get a green card and from the drag of 2 points. If a further offense, the shooter can be disqualified.

c. If a competitor fires one or more shots between the command "Load" and "fire", he will lose the same number of the best hits on his target.

d. If a competitor moves his rifle from the ready position to the firing position before the command "fire", he will first receive a warning. If repeated, he will lose 2 points from the score of that series.

e. If a competitor has shot on a wrong target, he will only be credited with the hits found on his own target.

f. The competitor, whose target has been crossfired by another shooter, will be notified of the high and the low score on his target. He then is allowed to accept either the low score or re-fire. The re-fire series will be conducted at the end of each position. The results of this new shooting cannot be either superior to the 10 best hits or inferior to the 10 lowest hits of the cancelled series.

g. If a competitor fires more than 10 shots during a series, he will lose the same number of the best hits even if the target should not have more than 10 hits.

5.2.3.4 Malfunctions

If a competitor should have malfunctions in the 300 m Rifle Military Rapid Fire, The below rules had to be followed

5.2.3.4.1. a. Allowable malfunctions (AM) are:

A bullet is lodged in the barrel.

A cartridge fails to fire.

The rifle fails to fire, although the trigger has been operated.

The cartridge, magazine cylinder or other part of the rifle has jammed.

The firing pin has broken.

The extractor fails to extract the cartridge.

b. Allowable malfunctions (AM).

The number of shots already fired must be recorded and the series may be repeated.

The shooter must fire all 10 shots at the target in any repeat series, unless a further malfunction occurs. Any shot(s) not fired or not hitting the target in there-fire must be scored as a miss(es) (zero(S)). The shooter may continue to shoot the remainder of the event.

5.2.3.4.2 Non-allowable malfunctions (NAM) are:

The shooter try to correct a malfunction and continue the series but he can not ended the series and then he informs a Range officer by raising his free hand. (The shooter must not touts the rifle before a range officer or jury member has been inspected the rifle).

The shooter had not loaded his rifle.

The shooter did not pull the trigger.

The safety catch has not been released.

The shooter had loaded less cartridges than prescribed.

The magazine was not inserted correctly, or had fallen out during shooting unless this is due to damage to the mechanism.

The malfunction is due to any cause that could reasonably have been corrected by the shooter.

5.2.3.4.3 Non-allowable malfunctions (NAM).

In the case of a NAM every shoot that is not fired will be scored as a miss (zero).

No re-fire or completion is permitted. Only the values of shots fired will be credited to the shooter. The shooter may continue to shoot the remainder of the event.

5.2.3.4.4 If a shooter has more than 2 allowable malfunctions.

If a further malfunction occurs after 2 (two) previous malfunctions within the 60 shots 300 m Military Rapid Fire-Program, only the value of shots actually fired will be credited to the shooter. The series may not be repeated nor completed. The shot(s) not fired will be scored as miss(es). The shooter may continue to shoot the remainder of the event.

5.2.3.4.5 Malfunctions In sighting shots.

If a malfunction occurs in the sighting shots the shooter must repaired and if this is not possibly, he must change rifle. He must repaired or change rifle before end of shooting time (15 minutes). No extra time or extra shoots will be given.

If a malfunction AM or NAM occurs in the sighting shots it must not be registered as a malfunction.

5.2.3.4.6 Re-fire series.

All re-fire series had to be shot after the last series in each position before changing position.

5.2.3.4.7 Shooting on electronic shooting ranges.

When shooting at fixed targets, firing will cease with a 3 seconds long whistling time. During the whistling (1 minute 27 seconds to 1 minute 30 seconds or 1 minute 57 seconds to 2 minutes), the competitor may fire. Thereupon, the shooter will be shown the strip "protocol of results" for examination for 1 minute or the results will be shown on his monitor.

If it is determined that 10 shots were fired for record and less than 10 shots are registered in the computer, then the competitor must repeat his series at the end of the position during the re-fire series. The results of this new shooting will be counted as the competitors score, but cannot be inferior to the score on the cancelled series. If the competitor has to re-fire more than one time, then the score cannot be inferior to the first cancelled series.

5.5.5 Ranking in all Shotgun-Competitions in CISM

5.5.5.1 Individual Ranking

The final ranking for the medal-positions in case of a tie is done by a shoot-off according to ISSF-rules. Rankings below the lowest medal-position is done by the "Count-Back"-method according to the ISSF rules. Ties with perfect scores will not be broken but will share first place with the same rank. The next rank is then appropriately numbered. The family names must be listed according to the Latin alphabet.

5.5.5.2 Team Ranking

If two (2) or more teams have the same scores, ranking must be decided by the combined score of the team members in the last round of targets, then by the next to the last round, etc. until the tie is broken.

5.6 QUALIFICATION for the INDIVIDUAL COMPETITIONS in RIFLE and PISTOL

5.6.1 At the preliminary meeting, the organizer must inform about the number of firing points that will be in use in the individual competitions. (In general, all available firing points should be used, except for 2 (left, right) that will be in reserve). Based on this information, the rules for qualification for the individual competitions will be:

a. Not less than 80% of the number of competitors shall be qualified by their results in the team competition:

- 60% shall be qualified directly by their ranking in their respectively relays.
- 20% shall be qualified by best scoring independent of relays.

b. The remaining firing positions (not more than 20% of the competitors) will be filled up in accordance to scoring among nations not having competitors qualified for the individual competition as referred in item (a). Only one participant from each of these nations can qualify.

If there is no need for all of the 20% nationality places, the rest of final places are qualified by highest results.

Shooters with DNS and DSQ have no right for start in the Individual competition.

Shooters with DNF will be handled according to their result

Example

The calculation in detail for the 60 % is as follows:

1. 40 Targets in Total, to use for the Finals = 38 (reserve 1 left, 1 right)

- 2. 38 Targets > total
- 60 % > 22,8 targets > 23 Shooters directly from the relays
 - 20 % > 7,6 targets > 8 Shooters from best results
 - 20 % > 7,6 targets > 7 (instead of 8) positions to fill up to 38 totally

3. Calculation for the 60 % (23 shooters):

totally 94 shooters, 3 Relays:

- Relay 1 > 28 shooters with results (without DNS, DISQ)
- Relay 2 > 34 shooters with results (without DNS, DISQ)
- Relay 3 > 32 shooters with results (without DNS, DISQ)

23 shooters of a total of 94 shooters > 24,5 %

- 24,5 % of 28 in relay 1 > 6.8 > 7 shooters
- 24,5 % of 34 in relay 2 > 8.3 > 8 shooters
- 24,5 % of 32 in relay 3 > 7.8 > 8 shooters

5.6.2 In order to ensure equal conditions for the best nations in the team competitions, the best 10 nations of the last shooting military world championship shall have the same number of shooters in each relay. (For example in a 3-relay match: 1-1-1).

5.7 REGULATIONS for CHAMPIONSHIPS HELD on ELECTRONIC SHOOTING RANGES

5.7.1 General

The additional following conditions must be fulfilled when organizing a championship on electronic shooting ranges:

- The organizing country must state in the invitation that electronic targets will be used and indicate the system in use.
- The system must be approved by the ISSF or allowed by the CSC Shooting
- The ISSF Regulations for use of electronic targets must be followed.

5.7.2 300m Military Rapid Fire Rifle

When shooting at fixed targets, firing will cease with a 3 seconds long whistling tone. During the whistling (1 minute 27 seconds to 1 minute 30 seconds or 1 minute 57 seconds to 2 minutes), the competitor may fire. Thereupon, the shooter will be shown the strip "protocol of results" for examination for 1 minute or the results will be shown in sequences on his monitor.

If it is determined that 10 shots were fired for record and less than 10 shots are registered in the computer (target failure), then the competitor must repeat his series at the end of the position during the refire series. The results of this new shooting will be counted as the competitors score, but cannot be inferior to the score on the cancelled series. If the competitor has to refire more than one time, then the score cannot be inferior to the first cancelled series.

5.8 CISM WORLD RECORDS

CISM world records may be established in World Military Shooting Championships which had been conducted according to CISM regulations.
