

INVITATION

RUSSIA, TULA
22-30 June 2024

Dear boys and girls!

We kindly invite you to the First Pre-University Education Schools Tournament 2024 of CISM member states.

The event will be held in 2024 in one of the oldest Russian cities - Tula.

You can showcase your training in a fair competition, join in promoting the values of the International Military Sports Council, such as solidarity, equality, honesty and determination. And, last but not least, you will pave the way to new heights- participation in the CISM World Cadet Games and the Military World Games.

Dear friends, you are the future elite of the national armed forces. I strongly believe that, upon receiving the opportunity to compete and communicate on sports grounds, you will subsequently use this experience to strengthen friendship and rapport between military personnel of different countries.

I wish all the participants of the tournament self-confidence, high sports performance and great victories!

SERGEY SHOYGU
Minister of Defense of the Russian Federation
General of the Army

Dear CISM members,

It is a privilege to address you and underscore the profound importance of sports in the development of young people within military schools. These games signify far more than mere athletic competition; they epitomize culture, unity, respect, and the forging of character in our future military leaders.

The Pre-University Education Schools Tournament 2024 serve as an unparalleled worldwide platform to showcase their athletic prowess, teamwork, and unwavering commitment to sports. Moreover, they underscore the pivotal role that sports play in instilling discipline, honor, and resilience—the very foundations of military student journey toward becoming a possible exemplary military officer.

Our young military students, who proudly represent their respective nations' military pre-universities, serve as beacons of dedication and determination. They tirelessly prepare for these international competitions, serving as role models and inspiring others to embrace the path of excellence.

Furthermore, the Pre-University Education Schools Tournament 2024 foster a deep sense of mutual understanding among nations. Irrespective of political or cultural divides, these games remind us that beneath the competitive spirit, we are all equals, united by a shared commitment to personal and collective growth. Competing with fairness, respect, and camaraderie, our military students strengthen the bonds of friendship and solidarity, contributing to a more peaceful world.

I kindly ask all CISM members to continue their unwavering support and promotion. These games hold immeasurable significance in molding the character and capabilities, reinforcing the notion that through sports and the military ethos, we cultivate a new generation of leaders, poised to contribute to a more united and peaceful world.

I extend my gratitude to each one of you for your attention and unwavering commitment to this remarkable event. May the Pre-University Education Schools Tournament continue to flourish as a lasting testament to the pivotal role of sports in shaping those who will lead our nations with honor and distinction.

Friendship through Sport!

ROLIM FILHO NILTON GOMES
President of the International Military Sport Council
Colonel

HOST COUNTRY: RUSSIA

General Status of the Host Country

Russia is vast. Russia is endless. Russia is timeless and eternal. Yet Russia can still surprise. Bounded by 12 seas of the Atlantic, Arctic and Pacific Oceans, the country's 17.1 million km include one-eighth of the earth's inhabited surface area. In addition to being the largest, the Russian Federation is one of the world's northernmost countries.

European Russia, the most densely populated, urbanized, and industrialized region. Seventy-eight percent of the population lives in this area. Two large industrial cities are located above the Arctic Circle: Murmansk on the Kola Peninsula and Norilsk in Siberia.

Russia is a country of incomparable beauty, variety and extremes, encompassing the snow-capped peaks of the Ural and Caucasus mountains, the seemingly infinite Siberian forests, the broad rivers stretching across the continent and deserts and grasslands of its central steppe. Russia is the land of Lake Baikal – the deepest and purest on Earth – and of the Volga, the longest river in Europe. No other country extends across nine of the earth's twenty-four standard time zones; as Russians in Vladivostok sit down to enjoy their evening family meals, their countrymen in Kaliningrad are rising to greet the sun's morning rays.

Cultural Status of the Host Country

History of culture

In order to understand Russian culture, it is important to realize that it is a unique symbiosis of European and Asian traditions. Russia has part of its roots in European culture where the ideas of goodness, honor, and freedom have similar meaning as in the West. The Mongols, conquered and controlled Russian lands for over 200 years. That brought Tatar blood into Slavic mix, creating modern Russian nation.

When Moscow liberated itself from the Tartars in 1480, the modern Russian state was born.

The Russian Orthodox Church, isolated from the rest of Christianity, developed independently as a national church.

Culture

Since representatives of so many nationalities live in Russia, its culture is also very diverse.

Russian culture has produced a number of world-famous artists and writers.

Five Russian artists whose paintings are included in the golden fund of world art: Ivan Aivazovsky, Viktor Vasnetsov, Ivan Shishkin, Ilya Repin, Isaac Levitan.

Literature would not be the same without Alexander Pushkin, Sergey Esenin, Mikhail Lermontov, Leo Tolstoy, Fyodor Dostoevsky.

Russian classical music contains the creative heritage of such great composers as Pyotr Tchaikovsky, Mikhail Glinka, Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov.

Russian ballet has been one of the hallmarks of Russian culture for centuries. It is rightfully recognized as the best in the world, and the names of outstanding artists have become synonymous with grace, skill and dedication to their work.

Radio, television, the first artificial satellite, color photography and much more are inscribed in the history of Russian inventions. These discoveries marked the beginning of the phenomenal development of various fields in science and technology.

Orthodoxy

Russian Orthodoxy, a branch of Christianity, is deeply rooted in Russian culture. The majority of Russians are Christians.

Russian folklore

Folklore is still very popular in Russian cities and towns. You may have heard about Palekh Art, Khokhloma painting, Gzhel ceramics, Russian «basnya» poems and folk songs. Traditions is what keeps Russian culture unique and alive to this day.

Sports Policies and Status of the Host Country

Sport has always been one of Russia's top national priorities. Soviet and Russian athletes have always been prominent on the international sport arena, excelling in Olympic sports and among the top medal winners at the Olympic Games and World Championships.

The Federal Government allocates substantial funds to develop both high performance sports and citizen participation.

Hosting major international sporting events provides a perfect opportunity to welcome guests from all over the world, share the celebration of sport and youth, and increase the social benefits created by these events.

In Russia there were held such important international sports events as the 27th Summer Universiade 2013 in Kazan, the Winter Olympic and Paralympic Games 2014 in Sochi, the FINA World Aquatics Championships, FINA World Masters Championships 2015 in Kazan.

Moreover, Sochi was chosen as the host city for the 3rd CISM Military World Winter Games at the 70th General Assembly and Congress of the International Military Sports Council in Kuwait City, Kuwait in 2015. The Games were held with great success in sports venues built for the 2014 Winter Olympic Games.

Russia was the host nation for the 2018 FIFA World Cup. The matches were held in the stadiums of 11 Russian cities: Kaliningrad, Kazan, Moscow, Nizhny Novgorod, Rostov-on-Don, Saint Petersburg, Samara, Saransk, Sochi, Volgograd and Yekaterinburg. This was the first football World Cup ever held in Eastern Europe, and the first held in Europe since 2006.

In 2022, the 3rd CISM World Cadet Games were held in St. Petersburg.

The Games were attended by 591 athletes, coaches and officials from 20 CISM member states.

The Games received the highest appraisal from the leadership of the International Military Sports Council and the participants of the competition.

In 2023, the most significant annual CISM organizational event, the 78th General Assembly and Congress, took place in Moscow.

Representatives of 76 states took part in the events of the Assembly, 24 of which participated via a videoconference organized with the city of Brussels.

The CISM delegates took part in the celebrations on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the Central Sports Club of the Army.

HOST CITY: TULA

Host City Information Foundation of Tula

Tula is one of the oldest cities in Russia. In the distant past, the Slavic tribe of Vyatichi lived on the territory of the Tula region. In 1054, their lands became part of the Chernigov Principality. Tula was first mentioned in the Nikon Chronicle of the 12th century in 1146.

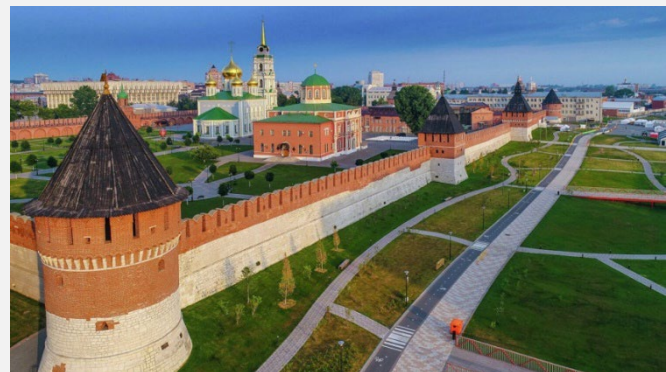

Tula in the 20th century

At the end of the 19th - beginning of the 20th centuries, large enterprises of the metallurgical, metalworking, military, and sugar industries appeared in Tula, which, together with the arms factory reconstructed in 1870-1873, were on a par with the largest industrial enterprises of the Russian Empire.

During the Russian Civil War, Tula was the center of the armament of the Red Army.

In the 20th century Tula and the region, the machine-building, chemical and coal industries received further development, new research institutes and design bureaus appeared, continuing the traditions of Tula gunsmiths.

Tula - Features

One of the features of Tula is its proximity to Moscow (2-3 hours by car or train).

Tula is a large industrial and commercial centers in Russia. The machine building, and metalworking.

leading industries are ferrous metallurgy,

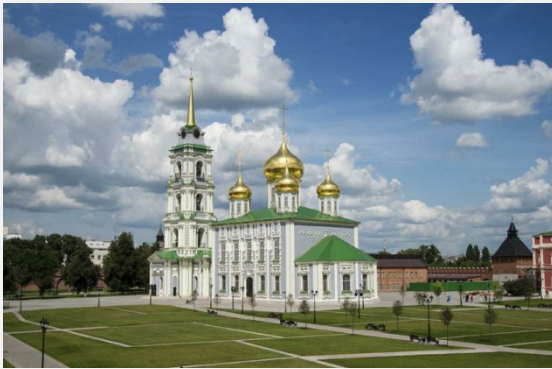

Tula is known for three activities of local residents rooted deep in the history of the city: the production of weapons, samovars, and gingerbread. Each of them is represented in the city by the Museum of Weapons, the Museum of Samovars, and the Museum of Tula Gingerbread.

In the Russian language there is such a phraseological unit as “Don’t go to Tula with your samovar” which means doing something useless.

In total, on the territory of Tula there are more than 300 objects of cultural heritage: monuments of architecture and urban planning, history. The Tula Kremlin, the oldest building in the city, is an architectural monument of the 16th century. “Yasnaya Polyana”, the house-museum of Leo Tolstoy (author of the novel «War and Peace»), is located about 14 km south-west of Tula. To visit all the sights of Tula, you will need at least 2-3 days.

The center of Tula is Lenin Square located near the Tula Kremlin. The main street of the city is Lenin Avenue - the busiest street in the city with a lot of educational institutions, a drama theater, a philharmonic, monuments to various cultural figures, monuments dedicated to the Second World War, various shops, restaurants, cafes, and supermarkets. Celebrations, parades and processions are held here.

Weather Conditions

The climate of Tula is moderately continental with distinct seasons. It is characterized by warm, long summers and moderately cold winters with frequent thaws. The average temperature in June is plus 23 degrees Celsius.

Highest daily temperature	+ 23,1 ° C

COMMITMENT BY THE CHIEF OF DELEGATION

I undersigned, Chief of Delegation of _____ certify that During the Tournament, all participating athletes are students of the respective Pre-university Education Schools and that the Chief of Mission and the other members of the mission have been informed of the Regulations and traditions of CISM, including the importance of fair play and good behavior.

The mission, who comes to the Pre-university Education Schools Tournament 2024 without confirming its participation, may be excluded from the Tournament if their unplanned arrival causes problems to the Organizing Country.

In conformity with the Statutes and traditions of CISM, any political or religious action during a CISM event, in particular the dissemination of propaganda documents, pictures, brochures, reviews, etc., is strictly forbidden. Any contravention shall result in the exclusion of the mission from further competition.

The Chief of Mission is reminded that athletes and other team members must comply with CISM Regulations. Instances of indiscipline or poor sportsmanship will be handled by Tournament officials and may result in the disqualification of individual athletes or teams.
