THE BIG PREMIERE

sixteen sports disciplines most of which are still unknown general public, 5000 athletes representing over 100 armed on various sports fields and arenas, the Military World s are going to make their big entrance in the international calendar in September 1995 in Rome.

is growing at an impressive rate: it enjoys, practically, national recognition, but nonetheless, needs to be associated first-class world event.

after the end of WWII, there is not a more meaningful and more beautiful message of peace than the one sent to the world by the representatives of more than one hundred armed forces. Those who had seemed to be forever divided by ideological and political barriers are going to come together in the name of friendship. While putting on the best performance possible is always one of the top priorities of our athletes, the spirit in which they will compete under the scrutinizing eyes of the world is
