C. Composition of the Mission

Staff of the Mission	Team
Chief of Mission	1
Team Captain	1
Trainer / Coach	1
Medical Staff (optional)	1
Ad libitum Male	1
Ad libitum Female	1
CSC Member	1
Male competitors	4
Female competitors	3
Total	14

- I. List the composition of the mission according to the latest version of CISM Regulations for Aeronautical Pentathlon (2025).
- II. No additional member(s) may be included in the mission without prior approval of the Organizing Committee.
- III. Members of the CISM Sports Committee – Aeronautical Pentathlon are authorized to integrate the delegations of their countries and will not count towards the composition of their nation's mission.
- IV. Only military personnel in active duty may participate in the competitions (CISM Regulations, Art. 7.22, item A).

D. Access to the Location of the Competition

1. Teams shall arrive at:
 - a. Rio de Janeiro International Airport Antonio Carlos Jobim (Galeão) – GIG; or
 - b. Santos Dumont Airport - SDU.
2. Airport information can be found at www.rnogaleao.com and/or <https://www.aeroportosantosdumont.net/en/>.
3. Brazilian Delegation to CISM will provide representatives on GIG and SDU Airports to welcome delegations and leave to official hotel or barrack.
4. All delegations are requested to arrange the GIG Airport (Rio de Janeiro Tom Jobim International Airport – Galeão) and SDU Airport (Santos Dumont Airport) for arrival and departure. Main international airlines can reach GIG Airport directly. If there is any country that the first stop in Brazil will be GRU Airport (Sao Paulo), the custom process will not be automatic and can take much more time than in GIG. For those countries it's strongly recommended to have a connecting flight with minimum 5 hours from GRU to GIG or SDU, because Brazilian government

International Military Sports Council
61st CISM World Military Aeronautical Pentathlon Championship

requests that the custom formalities for all luggage must be made at the first international airport of Brazil territory upon arrival.

5. Most probably some South American countries will come to Rio de Janeiro by bus. As for the transportation of the weapons, we let those countries know that the Organizing Committee cannot provide either the arrangements with the customs located in the Brazilian land borders or the security escort from the border to Rio de Janeiro.
6. The competition will take place in Air Force Sports Commission, located in Av. Marechal Fontenelle, 1000 - Campo dos Afonsos - Rio de Janeiro, RJ - ZIP Code 21.740-000.
7. The travel cost to the host country and respective return will occur under the responsibility of the participating missions/country.
8. The organizer will ensure the transportation from the place of arrival in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, to the place of stay and the transport during the competitions as well.
9. The Organizing Committee will provide official transportation from 6th to 13th November 2025.
10. In case of using other type of transportation, for instance, Military Aircrafts or land transportation, the delegations must inform the Brazilian Delegation to CISM, in order to make the necessary arrangements.
11. We kindly ask you to inform us about your other specific needs.

E. Conditions of Stay

1. During the stay in Brazil, missions will be guests of the Brazilian Defense Ministry. Boarding and lodging will be provided by the host to all participants during their stay in Brazil from 6th to 13th November 2025. Mission members will be accommodated in hotels, according to the budget that will be defined with opportunity.
2. During the 61st CISM World Military Aeronautical Pentathlon Championship, the Organizing Committee will provide a local transport, food & beverage and accommodation free of charge to the participants.
3. Extra expenses including telephone calls, laundry, food and drinks must be paid by the consumers.
4. Additional people will not be accepted without official written permission of the Organizers.
5. Missions arriving before 6th November 2025 and departing after 13th November 2025 will be responsible for all expenses incurred in the period out of competition and has to be accommodated in a normal external hotel.

International Military Sports Council

6th to 13th November 2025 - Rio de Janeiro - Brazil

6. CISM Officials such as the Official CISM Representative (OCR), PCSC, CSC (Shooting members) and other authorized representatives are allowed to arrive on 3rd November 2025, with no costs.
7. In accordance with the Statutes and traditions of CISM, any political or any religious action during the competition, in particular the dissemination of propaganda, documents, pictures, clothing, brochures, reviews etc, is strictly forbidden. Any contravention will result in immediate exclusion of such nation.
8. Medical emergencies (first aid) will be the responsibility of the Brazilian Armed Forces. The Brazilian Armed Forces will provide Doctors for all scheduled competitions. However, will not be responsible for any advanced medical expenses, to include hospital stays, surgical procedures and/or other medical care beyond first aid. All participants must travel with their own valid HEALTH INSURANCE (please, check conditions to use in Brazil). Participants are also responsible for ensuring they have with them any specific medication or medical supplies required for the event as well.
9. In line with a recent CISM Board decision, delegations may choose accommodations outside those provided by the host nation, pending approval by the Local Organizing Committee (LOC). Delegations opting for this will be fully responsible for managing all arrangements, including transportation, logistics and associated costs. However, for security reasons, Brazilian Delegation in accordance with LOC does not recommend to stay in another hotel different the one offered by LOC.

F. Regulations of the Championship

1. Rules:
 - a. CISM Regulations (Edition January 2025);
 - b. CISM Aeronautical Pentathlon Regulations (Edition 2025);
 - c. CISM Dress Code Guidelines (Edition February 2025);
 - d. CISM Anti-Doping Regulations; and
 - e. Specific rules for this championship will be forwarded to all participating countries during the Technical Meeting.
2. Eligibility: All athletes must be military personnel on full active duty in the Armed Forces of their respective nations (art. 7.22 of the CISM Regulations). Participation of inactive member nations is not authorized (art.7.25 of the CISM Regulations).
3. Weapons and Ammunition: all weapons and ammunition will be under responsibility of the participating teams.

G. Anti-doping

1. Anti-Doping tests will be conducted in accordance with the CISM Regulations, CISM Anti-Doping Rules, the CISM Aeronautical Pentathlon Regulations and all WADA rules, mainly the World Anti-Doping Code,

ANNEX 2b

FINAL ENTRY - COMMITMENT BY THE CHIEF OF MISSION

To be returned before: 24th September 2025

NATION:

The undersigned, Chief of Mission declare that he has read the CISM Regulations and moreover understood the following prescriptions:

Article 1.10. RIGHTS OF MEMBER NATIONS

Active member nations have the right to:

Be invited to all CISM Championships.

Inactive member nations have the same rights as active member nations except that:

They do not participate in any CISM event until they have met their financial obligations.

An inactive nation, intending to take part in the event must pay its annual fee before the deadline established by the Organizing Committee of the world military championship for sending the final entry. If it is not done, the delegation will not be able to take part in the event.

Article 7.22. PARTICIPATION - MILITARY STATUS

Only military personnel on active duty in Armed Forces may take part in competitions organized by CISM.

No one may be recalled to active duty in the Armed Forces for the purpose of participating in a CISM competition.

All military participants in a CISM event shall be in possession of proper documentation which signifies active military service of the member nation he represents. The documentation can be:

1. A valid military identity card for those athletes who are authorized to present their military identity cards abroad; and

2. A form of verification (in English and/or French) of military status accompanied by a passport.

By signing the Final Entry, the Chief of Delegation confirms the military status of the participating athletes. If there are last-minute changes in the participation of the athletes, the verification file may be signed by the Chief of Mission, but shall be confirmed by the Chief of Delegation by official letter.

If one of these documents is not available, participation is refused.

An athlete who has represented one country in CISM competitions (World Military Championship, World Games, World Winter Games, continental and regional championship), in the Olympic Games, or in any competition at world, continental or regional level recognized by the relevant IF, and who has changed his/her nationality or acquired a new nationality, may participate in CISM competitions representing his/her new country provided that at least two years have passed since the competitor last represented his/her former country.

Article 7.31. CHIEF OF MISSION

Chief of Mission

1. Chiefs of Mission shall be familiar with CISM regulations.
2. Missions must not only participate or be present at sports events, they are also required to participate in information conferences on CISM, study days, commemorative and cultural events and ceremonies organized by the host nation.

Conduct of a mission

1. The Chief of Mission is responsible for the behavior of his team in sports and general discipline. He shall ensure that members of his mission respect the rules and directives prescribed by CISM and organizers of the championship. The respect of schedules is particularly important as they form the basis for the effective conduct of competitions and ceremonies. Instances of indiscipline or poor sportsmanship will be handled by Championship officials and may result in the disqualification of individual athletes or teams.
2. The Chief of Mission shall also enforce the rules concerning behavior and dress during the ceremonies. He plays an important role in promoting the CISM spirit among his mission, a spirit represented by friendly attitude towards other missions, courtesy towards organizers and fair-play in competition. The mission, who does not wear military uniforms during the opening ceremony of a Championship, will not be authorised to take part in the Championship. The Official CISM Representative will communicate this decision.

Article 8.6. ABSENCE OF A MISSION WITHOUT NOTIFICATION

If a mission which submits a preliminary agreement and/or final entry is absent without notifying the host nation in time, a sanction will be imposed (Regulations Art. 1.12).

Article 8.17. RULES OF STAY

General

1. The Chiefs of Mission are responsible for the discipline of their mission. The missions fall under the jurisdiction of the organizing nation. During events, all athletes present on the playing fields are equal before the jury, the referees and to themselves. No one may use his rank to impose his views on sports matters.
2. Civilian members of the missions shall conform to the discipline accepted by all other participants.

Military uniforms

1. Unless otherwise approved by the Official CISM Representative, all participants shall wear military uniform during official ceremonies such as the opening and closing ceremonies and medal-awarding ceremonies. Individuals without proper uniform will not be allowed to participate in the championship.
2. The presentation of medals will take place, in principle, during the closing ceremony. The presentation of medals may be done in sports uniform, if for organizational reasons it is not possible to wear military uniforms. This is the case e.g. when the presentation immediately follows a championship sports event. Sports uniforms shall respect the corresponding national criteria (training suit, sports shoes, etc.) Displaying the national flag on the podium by the recipient (athlete or team) at a medal awarding ceremony is forbidden. Individuals failing to respect these prescriptions shall not receive their medal(s) during the official ceremonies.

International Military Sports Council

6th to 13th November 2025 - Rio de Janeiro - Brazil

Forbidden actions

1. In conformity with the statutes and traditions of CISM, any political or religious propaganda during a CISM event, in particular the dissemination of documents, pictures, brochures, reviews, etc. is strictly forbidden.
2. Any contravention shall result in the exclusion of the mission from further competition and may result in additional sanctions (Regulations Art. 1.12).

Article 8.19. ACCOMODATIONS

Accommodations for missions will be the best available, depending on possibilities at the disposal of organizers and based on categories of guests with reference to article 8.19.C. All Chiefs of Mission are officers and shall be treated as such with equal courtesy, regardless of rank.

I also declare that I checked national anthem on CISM website.
