1st – 9th May 2026

CONVOCAATION

To all CISM Authorities,
To all CISM Chief of Delegation,

It is with great honor and enthusiasm that I extend to you a cordial invitation to the 2026 CISM General Assembly and Congress, to be held in the Principality of Monaco, in May 2026.

This edition of the event holds special meaning, as it coincides with the 20th anniversary of the reign of His Serene Highness Prince Albert II of Monaco, a leader whose lifelong dedication to sport, peace, and sustainability has inspired generations around the world. The Prince is a former Olympic athlete and an enduring supporter of military and international sport, who embodies values that define the CISM mission.

Monaco has earned global recognition for its longstanding contributions to both sport and international diplomacy. The Principality, with its deep-rooted heritage in sports, is home to the iconic Monte Carlo Rally, the Formula 1 Grand Prix, and prestigious international athletic institutions.

Its long-standing commitment to peace and multilateral dialogue makes it a perfect partner for an organization like ours, which unites armed forces through sport and friendship.

The operational organization of this prestigious event has been entrusted to the Monegasque Public Force, a body comprised of two distinguished military units: the Prince's Carabiniers, who will serve as the direct liaison with CISM, and the Fire Brigade.

The CISM General Assembly and Congress is the most important institutional moment of our year. It brings together the Board of Directors meetings, the Continental meetings, the General Assembly, and the CISM Congress in a single week and setting. This offers a comprehensive platform for decision-making, dialogue, and the strategic development of our movement.

The 2026 edition will serve as a statutory gathering and a moment of reflection, renewal, and projection.

Together, we will assess our progress, chart the course for the years ahead, and reaffirm our commitment to building bridges among nations through the power of military sports.

Monaco's charm, elegance, and rich heritage will undoubtedly offer an inspiring environment for meaningful dialogue and renewed purpose.

In such a symbolic setting, we are reminded of our shared responsibility to shape the future of military sports, strengthen cooperation among armed forces, and ensure that CISM remains a pillar of unity, professionalism, and global peace.

On behalf of the International Military Sports Council, I look forward to welcoming each of you to this historic gathering.

Friendship through sport!

Colonel Nilton Gomes Rolim Filho

3. MILITARY DRESS CODE

The CISM General Assembly and Congress is a military event and organization with dress codes established by the Executive Committee.

As a reminder of the basics of military dress codes and the CISM Dress Code Manual:

- CIVILIAN CLOTHING :

Civilian clothing should be clean and appropriate for the situation, neither too revealing nor too casual. It should be suitable for the context and may vary depending on the level of formality, ranging from a suit to more casual yet smart clothing, such as jeans and a polo shirt in an informal setting.

- CLASS B MILITARY UNIFORM :

Class B military attire is a less formal everyday service uniform, often worn for daily work duties. It usually consists of a jacket, but frequently a short-sleeved shirt or blouse, trousers or a skirt, and appropriate footwear. Rank insignia and decorations in the form of bars are worn on the garment.

- CLASS A MILITARY UNIFORM :

The Class A military uniform is a formal dress uniform, similar to civilian attire, consisting of a button-down shirt, trousers or skirt, and headgear. It is worn for official events or gatherings and is adorned with rank and unit insignia, medal decorations, and is complemented by dress shoes and, optionally, a belt.

- FULL DRESS MILITARY UNIFORM GALA (OPTIONAL) :

For an officer's full dress military uniform, the dress code is a spencer for men, which includes a white dress shirt, bow tie and polished or patent black shoes. Women follow a similar dress code, wearing long evening gowns.

As Monaco attaches great importance to compliance with the dress code, the Monegasque delegation, in agreement with CISM headquarters, wishes it to be applied during official ceremonies, the official opening cocktail reception and the official closing dinner, which H.S.H. Prince Albert II of Monaco will honor with His presence.
