

Dear competitors of the Military Parachuting competition at the 2nd Military World Games, honorable members of the Croatian Army, ladies, and gentlemen

I am very pleased to see that after 10 days the parachuting competition of the 2nd Military World Games , which has gathered the parachutists from 38 countries from all over the world, has ended well.

The achieved results were on a high level, but what also counts is that we have achieved to bring together young people and encourage their friendship and, no matter what their political, religious, or social status may be.

Dear participants on the parachuting competition at the 2nd MWG (here I also mean the judges and the aircraft crew at the competition) I hope that you have spent a nice time here in Croatia, it's capital Zagreb, and here at Lučko and Kerestinec where the competition took place. This was possible thanks to all the people who worked hard on the organization of the competition, as those who worked on the processing and presentation of the results, those who provided a secure competition, and those who took care of the logistics and the protocol. I would like to thank them all.

Dear parachutists, I hope we have been good hosts and that you will leave our country with good impressions, and that some time you will come back to visit Croatia. I congratulate you all on the results you have achieved and hope to see you on the 3rd Military World Games.

Now I pronounce the parachuting competition at the 2nd MWG closed.

Thank you.

Major general

Black crows

The sports parachuting team of the 1st Croatian Guardian Corps, 1st Croatian Guardian Brigade, - The Black Crows - is well known and acknowledge not only in Croatia but also in worldwide parachuting circles for its good results achieved even in the war time when they directly from the battelfiel went to competitions.

Let's take a look at the foundation of this unit. The beginnings go as far as November 1991 when the activist of Aeroclub Osijek founded an independent aircraft squard called The Black Crows with the inital purpose of delivering food and ammunition to the east Slavonia battlefield. As the war spread on the east part of the country and the aggression grew stronger, there was a rising need for stronger perception and even for fight-flights. Although very poorly equipped, with light and agricultural airplanes, the members of the Black Crows caused the enemy's insecurity and panic by flying over their position and throwing improvised „boiler bombs“.

*The Black Crows on the Osijek airport

Unfortunately, during one of those courageous actions, flying over the enemy's position in villages Nijemci, the AN2 of the aircraft squad was hit by the SA-6 (KUB) and the commander of the aircraft squad Marko Živković, a MIG 29 pilot, the co-pilot Mirko Vukušić, and parachutists Ante Plazibat and Rade Griva lost their lives in this action. The name Black Crows comes from the time of those nightly actions. As they were flying only during night hours, and the meadows around the airport in Osijek are full of black crows, they were called „the Black Crows from the Livana“ (the airport is located near the village Livana). The name Black Crows they carry even today.

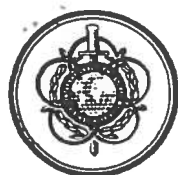

In 1992, on the initiative of general major Milenko Filipović, formed commander of the Croatian Army Headquarters' special squad-ZRINSKI, who was a member of the well known parachuting regiment in the Legion of Strangers before the war in Croatia broke out, the members of the regiment Zrinski started with the training of parachuting jumps. The training was performed by the well known parachutists of the Black Crows, led by senior captain Zdravko Babić, captains Tihomir Opačić, Darko Reinspach, Silvije Mikuška, and Božidar Rutnik, who is retired now. It should be mentioned that the majority of the members of the Black Crows were active parachutists before the war broke out. The parachuting regiment is nowadays the only elite regiment in Croatia.

As the time passed there were a large number of trained military DESANT parachutists from which the best and most prosperous go on advanced training. They are trained for sports disci-

IMPRESSIONS

As the 2nd Military World Games are coming to an end we tried to get some comments and impressions from the competitors. Here is what they have said.

The team from Chile wants to thank the Portuguese for lending them their camera so they could compete in Free Fall Formation. The team thinks that the organization was excellent and above all they like our nice country and the pretty ladies.

The Spanish competitors didn't like our jokes so we have one that was told by the Canadian team:

The difference between golfing and skydiving is the following:

The golfer goes: "Whack!... Damn!"

And the skydiver goes: "Damn!... Whack!"

The Canadians also told us that they would like to come back to Croatia for a vacation. They think Croatia is a nice country with a lot of beautiful women. The competition was great, except for an injured ankle, and the people are friendly and helpful (especially when trying to help a competitor who got lost down town).

The Finnish team wants to thank the organizer for their effort, they say "It was nice to be here" and as a new team they are looking forward for a better future.

The Danes are satisfied with everything: the food was good, the weather, and the competition running smoothly. They are sorry for not having any complaints, the only thing they have noticed was that the speaker on the manifest called out for accuracy in many different languages (accuracy, precision, etc.) but forgot the German (Ziel).

"It was very difficult to keep the pessimism up. We did our best but did not succeeded."

The Italian team wants to stay here for a long time. They praise the good organization and the pretty girls.

The French say it was very pleasant for them and they appreciate the accommodation so that all the competitors of a discipline were close together. Everybody is satisfied, and they especially enjoyed the sun eclipse. In most of Europe it was cloudy but the sky above Zagreb had cleared up for the eclipse.

The Polish team agreed that everything was good: the organization, food, accommodation, transport, movies in the cinema, beer, even the wind. The only thing that didn't make them happy was waking up early in the morning.

The Oman team participated for the first time on such a competition, and they are happy to be here. They were surprised by the level of performance since it was much higher than they have expected.
